IMPACT FACTS

Over 3,000 backpacks filled with school supplies gave children essential tools for success.

Hundreds of kids were positively engaged during the early months of re-entry in summer camps.

Residents got additional mental health supports.

Tens of thousands of donated goods were safely stored and distributed to families in need.

Recovering from a disaster of this scale is a three to five year process. The generosity of Albertans and Canadians has put us in a great position to help the charitable sector help the community."

—John Evans, Co-Chair
Community Partnerships Table

Gratitude

It is hard to put into words what it felt like to be the recipients of so much kindness and generosity in the hours, days and weeks after the devastating fire in Fort McMurray. Friends and strangers from coast to coast reached out to help our community in our time of greatest need. We will be forever grateful and humbled by your outpouring of support.

May 3rd will be etched in our collective memory for a long time. It was a day that started bright and sunny, with very little sign of smoke or danger. However, a press conference that morning, Fire Chief Darby Allen warned it was going to be a rough day. He was absolutely right.

By noon that day, the wind shifted and the sleeping fire awoke. It quickly made its way into a number of neighbourhoods and forced the evacuation of the entire city.

The Horse River Fire, as it was formally called, ended up consuming an area roughly the size of Prince Edward Island. It destroyed over 2,400 homes and buildings and severely damaged many more.

The staff and board of The United Way of Fort McMurray evacuated to safe locations across Canada and began the work of preparing for re-entry and the rebuilding of our social infrastructure, with incredible support from United Way partners from across Canada. Your kindness and your generosity fuelled our resolve to move forward and recover from the costliest disaster in our nation's history.

We are still trying to understand the real impact of the event on the people who lived through it. In addition to dealing with unimaginable material loss, residents of Wood Buffalo are also dealing with the psychological and emotional impacts of escaping the flames.

Every single act of kindness and concern helped. Thank you.

Our Commitment

The United Way of Fort McMurray is committed to the highest standards of financial accountability and transparency. Our intention with this update is to demonstrate to the generous individuals and companies who contributed to the Fire Recovery Fund that we are being good stewards of your donated dollars.

In the following pages you will see how the money came in and how it is being invested. The Fire Recovery Fund is separate and distinct from our regular Community Fund. It is intended to support short- and mid-term needs directly resulting from the 2016 wildfire. At some point in the future, these are needs that will no longer exist. On the other hand, our Community Fund, supports ongoing needs of agencies and a suite of programs and services that enable a safe, healthy and vibrant community.

The Fire Recovery Fund grew to approximately $4.5 million in the first six months after the fire. Individual and corporate donations came in through our United for Fort McMurray website, launched just four days after the initial evacuation of the community. A $2.1 million donation resulted from the Fire Aid for Fort McMurray concert that was hosted at Commonwealth Stadium in Edmonton on June 29th. Many more donations came in from fundraisers organized in communities across the country.

Your donations were put to work immediately upon our re-entry into the community. Much needed summer camp programming was made possible thanks to you. Over 3,000 students were given back packs filled with school supplies to start the 2016-17 academic year. Mental health supports were in place, funded in part, thanks to you.

The work of recovery is ongoing. It will take a number of years to work through the impacts of this catastrophic event. We are committed to reporting back to you on an annual basis on how your dollars are helping to make a difference.

The United Way of Fort McMurray has been accredited by the Imagine Canada Standards Program, one of only 200+ charitable groups across Canada to achieve this level of excellence in five key areas: board governance, financial accountability and transparency, ethical fundraising, staff management, and volunteer involvement.

Our Partners

One of the success stories to come out of the Fort McMurray wildfire is the way in which different organizations and sectors have been working together in common cause to rebuild our community and provide the necessary support and services for people. Within the first week of evacuation we were meeting with sector leaders and beginning the planning for what would need to happen upon re-entry. We also started talking with the Canadian Red Cross about how we could work most effectively together.

The Community Partnerships Table was created, co-chaired by representatives of both The United Way of Fort McMurray and the Canadian Red Cross. This group that includes government, indigenous, social profit and industry partners discusses funding priorities and strategies. This collaborative approach to investing in the rebuild of the social infrastructure has eliminated duplication, identified gaps, and ensured that funding goes to the areas of greatest need.

“We want to ensure that the millions of dollars that have been donated by Canadians are used the way they were intended. The Community Partnerships Table has proven to be a great structure to ensure that happens.”

John Evans, Co-Chair,
Community Partnerships Table

The Community Partnerships Table reviews applications which contain funding requests for $100,000 or more. Its mandate is to evaluate pre-qualified applications and make strategic recommendations in a collaborative and transparent manner. This process has allowed this broad cross-section of stakeholders to identify gaps, vulnerabilities and trends.

Communication is an important part of the recovery process. The Fire Recovery Fund supports IMPACT, a weekly radio show that captures many aspects of the work of rebuilding and healing from this disaster. Most recently featured was Ross Penner from Mennonite Disaster Service, a group providing help and hope to the uninsured and underinsured.

In a normal year, our Tools for School program helps provide backpacks filled with school supplies for about 500 students. Your generosity helped fill backpacks for over 3,000 students as they returned to the classroom after the Fort McMurray wildfire in September 2016.

Several community groups could not get back into their facilities after the fire because of smoke damage. As an example, your generosity provided Fort McMurray Minor Hockey with office space in The Redpoll Centre for the entire summer as they prepared for the season ahead. Their offices, while not destroyed, were located in one of the most heavily impacted neighborhoods.

The Fire Recovery Fund helped make the Multicultural Expo possible. Fort McMurray has residents from countries around the world, and this was an opportunity to gather and celebrate our cultural diversity and our resilience.

MAY 3, 2017

As we arrive at the one year anniversary of the wildfire and the unparalleled evacuation of Fort McMurray, we know that the work of recovery will continue for a number of years. The community has made tremendous progress thanks to the kindness and generosity of tens of thousands of people and companies from around the world.

Reconstruction is well underway. When you drive through devastated neighbourhoods like Beacon Hill and Abasand, houses are rising up and families are getting ready to return home.

The mental health impacts of a disaster of this scale are undeniable. Ensuring that the social infrastructure is in place and ready to respond has been a high priority in Year One after the fire. Agencies have responded with courage, determination and heart, emboldened by the overwhelming kindness and generosity demonstrated by you.

On behalf of all the residents of Wood Buffalo who have benefited from your kindness:
THANK YOU.
